Lightness and maneuverability in small caliber

Weighing only 2.3 kg, this model is perfectly suited to long hunting days or young hunters. The 410 caliber allows for fine and precise shots, limiting damage to feathered or furred game.

High-end aesthetics and finish

The 3D engraving on the Ergal 55 receiver and the specific 6-layer TruOil sanded-oil treatment of the wood make this rifle a premium product, as pleasant to handle as it is to look at.

Suitable for all profiles

Available with an English or pistol grip stock at no extra cost, this model is suitable for both smaller hunters and women. A left-handed option is available for €75.

Proven FAIR reliability

The double bottom locking and interchangeable steel trunnions ensure long-lasting robustness, even with intensive use in the field.

- Sight band: ventilated with barley grain front sight
- Wood finish: sanded-oiled immersion 6 coats
- Use: hunting small game in the plains
