Caesar Guerini Summit

The Summit Sporting CG 503 R is an effective tool intended to accomplish one and only task: breaking plateaus.

Each element is designed and manufactured with care.

The receiver is designed to withstand the life of a competition shotgun at a sustained rate of fire. Its thick CNC-milled receiver has large bearing surfaces above and below. It's clear that this rifle is built with durability in mind.

The pins can be easily replaced.

The stock includes an ergonomic handle with a pommel adapting to the palm of the shooter, the stock has an adjustable comb up and down and left and right.

The barrels are designed to be balanced and offer the greatest possible stability before and during the shot. The rocker is embellished with a neo modern style engraving, created by the Italian master engraver Dario Cortini.

- 12 gauge delivered with a series of 8 interchangeable chokes of the Maxischoke type as well as the key.
- Caliber 20 delivered with a series of 8 interchangeable chokes of the Selectchoke type as well as the key.
- Standard sight band.
