Crosse Monte-Carlo spécialement étudiée et réalisée pour les femmes et les petits gabarits !

Over the years, many manufacturers of hunting and sporting rifles have considered producing firearms specifically designed for women. Some quickly abandoned the idea, believing the necessary production effort was too great for such a niche market. Others made unconvincing or largely unsuccessful attempts with guns featuring shorter stocks and bright colors.

However, with the Caesar Guerini Syren range, it's a completely different story!

As a division of Ceasar Guerini and Fabarm, Syren aims to design firearms perfectly suited to the female physique. No more modifications to existing products, or the children's rifles so often offered. Syren rifles and accessories are designed by women for women. Everyone involved in the Syren project, from the female management team to the staff, is committed to guaranteeing female shooters the best possible product, without compromise, for practicing their favorite disciplines!
