Targets designed to measure your performance

Beyond simply striking the target, these GAMO cardboard targets allow you to precisely track your progress over several sessions. The spaces dedicated to the shooter's name, target number, and total score make it easy to keep track of your rounds and compare your performance. It's a detail you'll quickly appreciate, especially during sessions at the club or with friends.

14 x 14 cm format: a practical standard

Measuring 14 x 14 cm, these targets offer excellent readability of impacts while remaining easy to transport and mount on most target holders. Their crisp printing highlights the numbered scoring zones from 1 to 9 for quick results reading.

For recreational shooting as well as regular training

Whether the goal is to prepare for a competition, improve accuracy, or simply share a friendly moment, these targets serve many purposes. They are particularly suited to air rifles and pistols, but are also appropriate for other disciplines using paper targets of this size.

Two packaging options to suit your needs

Available in packs of 50 or 100 targets , they allow you to complete your equipment for a few sessions or to have a comfortable stock for intensive use in a shooting range or club.
