Shooting comfort

The fixed composite stock is equipped with an HRA shock absorber, effectively reducing the feeling of recoil. It offers ideal stability for extended sessions at the range.

Rifled barrel with muzzle brake

The 61 cm barrel is rifled and equipped with a muzzle brake . This channels some of the gases to reduce recoil and improve control during successive shots.

True Timber Viper Camouflage

The True Timber Viper Green finish is a modern camouflage applied to the stock and handguard. Combined with the Soft Touch treatment, it combines visual discretion and grip comfort.

Sights and modularity

The detachable sights (diopter and front sight) provide flexibility depending on the type of shooting. The rifle can also be fitted with a MIL-STD 1913 Picatinny rail for adding optics or accessories.
