The TRACKER configuration of the ELOS AL has established itself year after year as the best rifle for slug shooting!

A special slug-fired shotgun for driven big game hunting. The 51 cm barrel features a unique scope mount that rests solely on the barrel band, thus eliminating any stress due to barrel expansion. This mounting system is also extremely low-profile. The barrels, machined from solid blocks and meticulously bored to 18.4 mm, ensure incredible accuracy. With its Ergal receiver, the gun is lightweight, maneuverable, and responsive. Beautifully engraved hunting scenes with a gold finish. Proofed to 1630 BAR.

- Ergal 55 action with steel insert on the breech face of the action.
- Extractor
- Fixed cylindrical chokes - Weapon proofed to 1630 BAR.
- Adjustable fiber optic sights
- Pistol grip stock with tulip forend in walnut, sanded and oiled finish
- Stock length: 367 mm
- Milled fret for mounting an optic
- Selective single-stage expansion

A sleek, compact stacked shotgun for bullet shooting.

A slug rifle with Ergal 55 rocker for more lightness and maneuverability when driven.

Its solid-forged tubes provide incredible precision thanks to its meticulous boring.

It stands out from the competition with its test pressure of 1630 Bar, allowing it to fire a wide range of hunting cartridges.
