A single silencer for all your rimfire weapons

The STALON RF was developed to provide exceptional sound reduction on all rimfire calibers, from .17 HMR to .22 WMR. Whether you're using a subsonic .22LR for stealth shooting or a more powerful .22 Magnum, this suppressor provides virtually identical attenuation, eliminating the need for multiple models.

Compact and practical design

Its front-mounted (non-telescoping) design makes it ideal for both rifles and pistols, where an over-barrel model would be unsuitable. At only 132 mm long and weighing just 96 grams, it installs easily without unbalancing the weapon.

Technical characteristics

- Total length: 132 mm

- Front extension: 117 mm
- Diameter: 31.5 mm
- Weight: 96 g
- Attenuation: 29.9 dB in .22LR pistol
- Compatible threads: 1/2x20, 1/2x28, M12x1, M13x1, M14x1, M15x1

STALON Reliability and Durability

Constructed from premium anodized aluminum with a detachable core , the RF is built to last. Its internal baffles and threading, also made from anodized aluminum, ensure strength and longevity. Its matte black finish with gold ring adds a touch of understated elegance.

The perfect choice for rimfire shooters

With the STALON RF, you benefit from a universal silencer for all your rimfire weapons . Lightweight, compact and high-performance, it is a strategic investment for recreational shooting as well as for hunters looking for discretion.
