Compact recoil spring tester for handguns.

Troubleshooting malfunctions with handguns can sometimes be difficult.

With our dedicated recoil spring tester, you can easily eliminate a potential source of problems with your handgun.

Compatible with the following models:

- CZ Shadow 2
- any 1911 cannon
- CZ 75 TS
- CZ 75B / CZ SP01
- Tangfolio Stock 2
- Tangfolio Stock 3
- Beretta 92FS

Its simplistic design and ease of use allow you to quickly and efficiently test the strength of your return springs.

Simply insert the recoil spring into the tester, attach the included scale, and compress the spring to the position indicated for your particular handgun model.

The digital scale display will instantly indicate if your return spring is worn and needs to be replaced.

In the packager you will receive a high quality nylon tester body, a steel recoil spring guide, a spring cap and a digital scale.
