The German Tactical Mount is a completely new line from EAW for tactical applications. This is a modular system for attaching additional optics and accessories.

This is a modular system for attaching additional optics and accessories. This extremely robust mount is approved for all calibers. It is available as a ring pair, mounting block and forward offset version. The mounts are machined from solid 7075 aluminum, all stressed parts are C45 steel. A stop over the entire surface guarantees optimal power transmission.
