Ideal for tactical and survival applications, this tomahawk is designed for the most extreme situations, ensuring durability and reliability.

The Heavy Metal Tomahawk from Toor Knives is a centerpiece of the limited Heavy Metal collection. Designed for lovers of rugged blades, it features a Midnight Black KG Gunkote finish, providing exceptional resistance to abrasion, chemicals and impact. The handle is made of carbon fiber and blood red G10, with brass finishes. It comes with a custom black and blood red KYDEX® sheath.

Strong points :

- D2 steel for exceptional strength
- High quality design and finishes
- Made in the USA, by a veteran-owned company

Technology :

- TDT: multiple heat treatment and non-oxygen thermal normalization and cryogenic finishing to harden external austenitic steel. The guarantee of an ultra regular molecular structure and maximum hardness.
- MicraCoat surface treatment: Maximum anti-corrosion protection thanks to a thermal multi-layer application. Minimal thickness for exceptional protection.
- Dynamic Fluting handle: a multiaxial sculpted structure which ensures both comfort in the hand and perfect grip of the knife.
