Small knife for comfortable carry throughout the day, ready for all everyday tasks.

The cutting edge has a 2.75" straight line for fine work, and a 1.75" radius to the tip for work with a traditional blade. Its KG Gunkote finish provides excellent resistance to abrasion, chemicals and impact, and the shape of the blade allows for increased mass of steel behind the cutting edge, resulting in longer life. sharpening and better resistance to shocks of the cutting edge. The shape of the blade increases the mass of steel behind the cutting edge, which results in greater sharpening longevity and better resistance to the impact of the cutting edge.

Additionally, the handles of the Spanish Moss and Battleship Gray blades are coated with a polished copper accent and ebony scales, providing soft ergonomics in the hand, as well as a good grip when in use in humid environments. The wood itself is cut and processed at the Crelicam ebony factory in Cameroon by a dedicated and hardworking local workforce. Each piece is unique, meaning each of these blades has the potential to be different and stand alone. We individually hand treat each ebony handle and finish it with extremely thorough sanding and polishing to ensure the wood will last a lifetime.

Each Field 2.0 is made in the USA and comes with a Hermann Oak Leather Holster or FlexTech KYDEX® Holster.

Technology :

- TDT: multiple heat treatment and non-oxygen thermal normalization and cryogenic finishing to harden external austenitic steel. The guarantee of an ultra regular molecular structure and maximum hardness.

- MicraCoat surface treatment: Maximum anti-corrosion protection thanks to a thermal multi-layer application. Minimal thickness for exceptional protection.
- Dynamic Fluting handle: a multiaxial sculpted structure which ensures both comfort in the hand and perfect grip of the knife.
