The FAIR Iside G2 represents the perfect balance between tradition and modernity. Its finely engraved, single-piece steel receiver is a testament to the brand's gunsmithing expertise.

The 71 cm, steel-tested barrels ensure compatibility with steel balls and magnum loads (12/76). The interchangeable chokes offer great versatility to adapt to different types of game and terrain.

The stock and fore-end, in sanded and oiled walnut, provide a comfortable grip and a timeless aesthetic. Its automatic ejectors guarantee rapid extraction of cartridges for smooth sequences, even in intense action.

Whether for hunting small game or migratory birds, the FAIR Iside G2 meets your expectations by offering precision, robustness and elegant style.

Highlights

Elegance and tradition : Careful finishing and high quality walnut wood.

Maximum versatility : Interchangeable chokes for adaptation to all hunting situations.

Proven robustness : Steel frame and barrels compatible with modern ammunition.

With the FAIR Iside G2, live your passion for hunting with a weapon that is as efficient as it is refined.
