Equipped with a removable magazine and a Weaver rail, it ensures optimal versatility for sport shooting and hunting.

The BCM Ignis carbine in 308 Win caliber is designed for demanding shooters, offering exceptional precision thanks to its heavy 51 cm barrel and ergonomic walnut stock. The removable magazine facilitates rapid reloading, an undeniable asset during intensive shooting sessions or in hunting situations. The integrated Weaver rail allows the easy installation of various optical accessories, such as rifle scopes, thus increasing the versatility of the weapon according to the specific needs of the user. Scope not included.

The BCM Ignis rifle in 308 Winchester caliber is a weapon of choice for precision shooting enthusiasts and hunters looking for reliability and performance. Its heavy 510 mm barrel ensures excellent stability when shooting, thus improving accuracy over long distances. The walnut stock not only offers a classic aesthetic but also ergonomics designed for optimal comfort when shouldering. The M14x1R thread at the end of the barrel offers the possibility of adding devices such as sound moderators or muzzle brakes, allowing customization according to the shooter's preferences. The combination of these features makes the BCM Ignis a rifle suitable for both shooting competitions and demanding hunting trips.
