Sound reduction and shooting control

The Green Whisper signature focuses on reducing noise pollution to provide more enjoyable workouts for both the user and their environment. The design aims to contain vibrations and provide a smoother shooting sensation, promoting repetition of exercises and improved groupings.

Precision and dedicated optics

The included 4x32WR scope facilitates rapid target acquisition and allows you to fully exploit the weapon's intrinsic accuracy. Designed for recreational and training use, it offers a powerful compromise between magnification and field of view for common distances.

AccuTek pellets: technology and ballistic behavior

The included ammunition features AccuTek™ technology, designed to improve chambering and aerodynamics. The hollow head optimizes expansion upon impact on soft targets, while the new, more ductile alloy allows for better conformation to chamber and rifling imperfections for tight groupings .

- Sound technology: Green Whisper system for noise reduction
- Optics: 4x32WR scope optimized for recreational shooting
- Comfort: grip designed for extended sessions
- Recommended use: training, target shooting and outdoor plinking
- Target packaging: numbered targets for tracking and progressive training

This Christmas pack combines a technical approach focused on acoustic comfort and a selection of innovative ammunition to optimize your shooting sessions. Designed for practitioners who care about precision and discretion, it makes a relevant and complete gift for recreational shooting enthusiasts.
