A rifle ready for all situations

The Tribore HP barrel guarantees excellent accuracy, a rapid climb, and moderate recoil. With its 5 included HP chokes, the Elos B2 Silver Field easily adapts to the distance and type of game, from small migratory birds to resident game.

Steel rocker and elegant engraving

Its forged steel receiver ensures strength and durability. The understated and elegant silver finish is discreetly engraved to subtly emphasize the premium character of the model.

Comfortable and efficient grip

The pistol grip stock and tulip forend offer well-thought-out ergonomics. The checkering is crisp, the oiled finish highlights the natural wood, and the dimensions (38/58 mm drop) ensure a natural and stable shoulder shot.

Built to last, tested to 1630 BAR

Tested under high pressure, this shotgun is designed to last, even with powerful 12/76 gauge cartridges. In use, its smooth opening action and the responsiveness of the ejectors are immediately appealing.
