Architecture designed to last

Steel rocker and controlled mechanics

Solid and reliable, the steel receiver of the Jubilee Venice offers a stable balance point and a smooth firing cycle. Every shot is crisp, consistent, and inspires confidence from the very first strike.

Reactive automatic ejection

Automatic ejectors facilitate rapid reloading, a real plus on dynamic hunts where every second counts.

Comfort and versatility on the field

71 cm barrels and XP50 chokes

Ideal length for natural aiming and accurate shooting. Supplied with 5 interchangeable XP50 chokes, this shotgun easily adapts to all hunting configurations. Note: the Full and Improved Modified chokes are not compatible with steel shot cartridges.

High-end finish and smooth ergonomics

The oiled C+ walnut stock, with its Prince of Wales grip, provides a soft and intuitive hold. It facilitates rapid sequences while maintaining comfort and control.

Refined Italian aesthetics

Engravings and finishing details

The deep engravings on the side plates highlight the meticulous craftsmanship of each piece. They embody that timeless style characteristic of prestige weapons, understated yet remarkable.

Choose your caliber according to the intended use

12/76 - Power and versatility

The 12-gauge magnum is the ultimate all-rounder, suitable for hunting in open fields, waterfowl, or even from a blind. Ideal for those who want a versatile shotgun with ample power.

20/76 - Light and nimble

The 20 magnum impresses with its balance and responsiveness. Perfect for hunting with pointing dogs, stalking, or for hunters looking for a more maneuverable shotgun without sacrificing effectiveness.

28/76 - Precision and shooting pleasure

A connoisseur's choice. Light and pleasant to use, this caliber demands a good level of skill but rewards with a fine and precise shot. Suitable for small game, ideal for experienced hunters.

.410/76 - Discretion and technical expertise

This small caliber appeals to technical shooting enthusiasts or hunters looking for a challenge. Recommended for close-range and precise shots. Available only with a single trigger.

FAQ

Is this rifle available in a double trigger version?

Yes, the 12/76, 20/76, and 28/76 calibers are available in double-trigger or single-trigger versions. The .410/76 caliber is only available with a single trigger.

Can steel shot cartridges be fired from this rifle?

Yes, provided you use compatible chokes. Full and Improved Modified chokes should not be used with steel shot cartridges.

What is the proposed barrel length?

The FAIR Jubilee Venice comes with 71cm barrels, a good compromise between maneuverability and accuracy.
