A particularly realistic Blowback experience

From the very first shots, the blowback mechanism truly transforms the experience. The metal slide recoils with each shot, replicating the movement of a semi-automatic pistol. This provides a realistic feel that makes recreational shooting sessions particularly enjoyable.

Above-average power for its category

With nearly 4 joules of energy , this model delivers more power than many CO? pistols in its class. This power reserve allows for consistent shots at paper targets, lightweight metal silhouettes, or toy targets, while maintaining excellent stability.

Ingenious and fast 16-round magazine

The 2 x 8-shot reversible magazine system is one of the PT-85's defining features. Once the first eight pellets have been fired, simply flip the integrated magazine over and then reinsert it. The action quickly becomes second nature and minimizes interruptions during shooting sessions.

Rifled barrel and Match Classic pellets

The rifled steel barrel perfectly utilizes the GAMO Match Classic pellets included in the pack. Their flat head cleanly cuts through the target and makes it easy to read the impacts. This is exactly the kind of detail you appreciate when you're looking to improve your groupings.

A ready-to-shoot pack

Everything is designed for immediate use. The carrying case effectively protects everything during transport, the five CO? cartridges provide ample power to get started, while the fifty targets allow you to play session after session as soon as you open the box. In practice, all that's left to do is install a CO? cartridge and load the cylinder.

Ergonomics designed for comfort

The textured grip ensures a secure and comfortable hold. The ambidextrous safety lever is suitable for both right- and left-handed shooters. The lower rail also allows for the mounting of a compatible light or laser, depending on the shooter's needs.
