A powerful rifle for recreational shooting

With an energy of 19.9 joules , this 4.5 mm air rifle offers performance suitable for medium-range target shooting. Its break-barrel mechanism is simple, reliable, and quick to operate. In use, its consistent performance and ease of cocking are particularly appreciated.

A ready-to-use 4x32 scope

The package includes a GAMO 4x32 WR scope mounted on an 11mm dovetail rail. This fixed magnification improves accuracy while maintaining rapid target acquisition. It offers exceptional comfort for both training sessions and recreational shooting.

A durable and ergonomic stock

The OD green polymer stock is highly resistant to outdoor use. Its ambidextrous design ensures a natural grip for both right- and left-handed shooters. The fiber optic sights remain perfectly visible in all lighting conditions.

Leads designed for performance

The GAMO Pro Magnum Penetration rounds included in this pack are renowned for their excellent penetration and consistent trajectory. Their profile promotes uniform groupings and allows you to fully exploit the potential of the rifled barrel. This is the type of ammunition you choose when you're looking for precision and consistency.

A complete pack to get started immediately

This kit includes everything you need to fully enjoy your rifle right out of the box: a scope mountable, a box of 250 pellets , and 50 cardboard targets . In practice, all you need to do is prepare your shooting area and start your first sessions without any additional purchases.
